SUPREME, CIRCUIT AND SUPERIOR COURTS
(Since 1778)

From 1778 to 1782, the highest court in the state was called the Superior Court; in 1782, it became known as the Supreme Court. In 1850, the number of Supreme Court Judges was reduced and a Circuit Court established. The Circuit Court was abolished in 1857, however, and the number of Supreme Court Judges increased to six. In 1906, a dual system of courts was again established with four (five since 1908) Supreme Court Justices and six Superior Judges.
